

IntegriPrint under New Ownership

I'm excited to announce, effective January 1st, 2022, Chelsie Schmid is the new owner of IntegriPrint, Inc. After 17+ years of training and preparing for my succession, she is prepared to continue the growth of the company into the future. Since Chelsie is also my niece, it is super exciting for me to watch her take this next step.

As for me, I will be available as a consultant to Chelsie as well as doing the bookkeeping remotely, because I like to be somewhat busy. In other words, I'm considering this my "semi" retirement. Of course, I will be keeping my work schedule flexible to allow time with family and friends. I'm especially looking forward to being available to help with grandchildren.

As exciting as all of this is, I will miss working with our clients. I have been blessed over the last 27+ years to be able to work with so many awesome people. I have many to thank for my successes over these past years. I couldn't have done it without caring employees, great clients, extremely smart coaches and the support of so many people around me.

Please join me in congratulating Chelsie as the Owner of IntegriPrint. As always, she will be taking care of IntegriPrint's clients and employees with the same enthusiasm and professionalism as she has over these past many years.

It's an honor to know Jackie has the trust and confidence in my ability to carry her legacy into the future as the new owner of IntegriPrint. Our mission of making clients look great will remain the same, as well as the integrity with which we always conduct business. I look forward to the future of IntegriPrint and the continued partnerships with all our wonderful clients. I'm happy to see Jackie enjoy semi-retirement and grateful she will continue to be available for consulting and mentoring.
